SHIPYARD SALE WAS CONFIRMED

Execution of Decree Delayed, However, in Order to Allow Time for Appeal.

The sale of the shipyard of the William R. Trigg Company to the Lloyd & Lloyd Bank was confirmed by Judge Daniel Grinnan, of the Chancery Court, yesterday, though the execution of the decree was suspended for sixty days to allow the First National and the Savings Bank of Richmond to apply for an appeal.

Mr. Lloyd is chairman of the first and second mortgage bondholders, and purchased the buildings and dock for $250,000, while the machinery and fixtures were bought by Mr. Samuel for $100,000, the purchase having been made for the bondholders.

The court reserves a lien on the real estate purchased by Mr. Lloyd, and the right hereafter to decree against the purchaser for any amount that may be hereafter ascertained to be owing for the purchase of the bondholders' proportions of costs and expenditures of every kind incident to the sale.

The following is appended to the decree: "But it is understood that the office furniture and fixtures and foundry patterns are not embraced in the property re-ferrered to as sold by the commissionaire. "The banks having expressed their purpose to apply for an appeal from this decree, it is further ordered that the execution of the same be suspended for a period of sixty days, provided the banks or some persons for them do, within five days from date, enter into a bond with approved security before the clerk of the Chancery Court in the penalty of $50,000, and conditioned according to law, and upon the execution of the First National Bank and the Savings Bank of Richmond by their respective counsel, and upon certificate of the commissionaire in support of said exceptions, which certificate is treated as an affidavit."

A BARBECUE FOR MARTIN

Major Helms Says Franklin Will Not Be Outdone.

Major George M. Helms, former superintendent of the penitentiary, was in town yesterday, and, discussing the occasion given to Senator Martin at Chatham last Monday, said that the senator's friends in Franklin were determined not to be outdone by his Pittsylvania followers, and that they would give him as large a crowd on the 7th of August, when there is to be a big barbecue at Rocky Mount.

Major Helms was called to the fact that Gov. Montague was advertised to speak at Rocky Mount on the same day. He said that he supposed this was a mistake, as the day had been selected by Senator Martin's friends as far back as June 30th, and the barbecue is being gotten up by the friends of the junior senator and in his honor, and that he did not suppose Governor Montague would be present under these circumstances.

SOMETHING NEW COME OF INQUIRY

Grand Jury Still Tugging Away at the Election Cases.

REPORT IS EXPECTED TO-DAY

Tickets and Books in Third Monroe to Be Examined—Witnesses Yesterday.

The grand jury is still wrestling with the alleged election irregularities in the third precinct of Monroe Ward, and it will require another session to-day in order to complete the investigations.

The case of Jackson Wise, the registrar in this precinct, who is charged with improperly registering one Culbertson and then putting him in as clerk of the precinct, was called in the Police Court, and it was again postponed in order to await the report of the grand jury.

It has been pretty generally thought that the jury would be unable to discover any wrong-doing as a result of the inquiry, but somehow last night there was a feeling that there might be a surprise on this line when the final report is made to the court.

A number of witnesses were examined yesterday and others will be introduced to-day.

An examination of the ballots cast in the involved precinct will also be made by the jury, and the poll books will be before the body.

Messrs. F. C. Ebel, W. T. Hancock and Sam Cohen, members of the City Electoral Board, were questioned yesterday as to the circumstances under which Wise was appointed registrar, and each remained in the room for some time.

Hard to Get Officers.

"We have had the worst kind of trouble in securing election officials," said one of the members of the Electoral Board. "In order to get good men to serve we have almost had to get on our knees. The public likes to work the people around to find for the places. We did the best that could be done in appointing the officials and think we have a good set."

Colonel B. O. James and Mr. Charles M. Wallace, Jr., two of the candidates for Commonwealth's attorney, were among the witnesses yesterday, but they did not remain long in the room. Another witness was Mike Pierce, who was followed by N. F. Norvell.

Mr. Norvell lives in the county, and it is understood that his testimony was along the line that Culbertson told him he could vote in the city, as he would be an officer of the election and it would be all right.

Other Witnesses.

Other witnesses were Messrs. Pat McDonough, Ollis Tyler, L. Howard, A. D. DeLois, O'Dwyer, Buck Sizer and R. L. Syrie.

Among the witnesses summoned for to-day are Messrs. Chris. Manning and H. Claiborne Epps, who were called yesterday, but who did not respond.

There are several others, and when these are examined and the ballots and books are looked into, it is expected the jury will begin work on their report.

The investigation, which was brought on through Mr. W. E. Royall, registrar, has now along each day since Monday, and it is evident that the jury are determined to get at the very bottom facts in the case.

All Are Co-operating.

The jury is considered a good one, and every disposition has been shown by the court and the jury to investigate the matter in a fair and fearless manner.

The charge of Judge Witt was an able and sweeping one, and Commonwealth's Attorney D. C. Richardson is lending every possible assistance to the jury in their labors.

The report, likely to be made to-day, is being eagerly awaited by the public.

CURIOSITY SATISFIED.

Mr. Joseph Bryan Answers a New York Newspaper Inquiry.

The following very interesting correspondence between the New York World and Mr. Joseph Bryan, of this city, needs no further explanation than the letters themselves afford. Mr. Bryan yesterday received the following telegraphic inquiry from the World:

"Joseph Bryan, Richmond, Va.: "Equitable stock books shows five shares stock transferred to you, and you buy it outright? If so, why, from whom and for what price? or have you an option on it? If not an outright purchase, do you consider yourself a dummy director? Are you obliged to return stock if you leave the board? Kindly telegraph at our expense."

(Signed) "THE WORLD." "To this very remarkable communication Mr. Bryan telegraphed the following: "The World, New York: "Replying to your telegram, if it is eventually found, in the Equitable Life Assurance Society in order to qualify me as a director, I will either buy the necessary stock outright or resign."

"You perhaps are not aware that your question as to considering myself a 'dummy director' is an improper question to ask a gentleman."

(Signed) "JOSEPH BRYAN." GETS SIX YEARS.

Nona Jenks Gets Long Term on the Charge of Abduction.

In the Hustings Court yesterday in the case of Nona Jenks, alias Nona Howard, who was charged with abducting the little white girl—Anna Goddin and Lizzie Schirmer—for immoral purposes, the woman was given six years by the jury.

The case was brought on by the Attorney General, in opening and closing, were especially severe on the prisoner. The jury, after a deliberation of nearly two hours, made an earnest argument, considering the fact that she was thought to have had a weak case.

No move was made looking to a new trial, and the woman will be taken to the penitentiary in a short while.

Governor Invited to Atlanta.

Mr. W. N. Mitchell, of Atlanta, head of the Georgia Commission for the Jamestown Exposition, is in the city on business, and called to see Governor Montague with a view of getting him to visit Atlanta and address the legislature in the interest of the exposition.

OUTING CONTEST ENDS TOMORROW

Result of the Great and Spirited Struggle to Be Announced Sunday.

GREATER THAN EVER BEFORE

Hundreds of Thousands of Ballots Deposited, and Great Rush Expected To-day.

To-morrow evening at 6 o'clock the summer outings contest will close. The polls will close sharp at 6 P. M., and the work of tabulating the hundreds of thousands of ballots will begin, so that an announcement of the names and standing of the winners of the fourteen splendid prize trips may be made in next Sunday's Times-Dispatch.

The voting has been lively during the past few days, and thousands of votes have been issued and deposited. The interest is intense. All parties concerned—the contestants, the Times-Dispatch readers and the office force, upon whom the work of counting the immense volume of votes will devolve—are eagerly awaiting the final flurry of ballots that will decide the outing contest of 1905.

No newspaper has ever conducted a more popular contest than the now famous outings contests of The Times-Dispatch. The first contest was held during the summer of 1903 and was a very great success from its start. The second contest in 1904 was even more successful, while the present contest is without doubt more interesting than any that has preceded it.

As a result of this contest forty-five ladies will enjoy outings at the resorts of their choice from among the hotels selected at the beginning of the contest, and as the guests of The Times-Dispatch, they are enjoying the result of their votes cast for them by hundreds of their friends and Times-Dispatch readers.

Voting certificates will be issued at 6 P. M. at the close of the contest, in the circulation department office (up stairs), 916 East Main Street.

These desirable certificates are requested to call early in the day, so that the work will not be congested at closing time. This will greatly facilitate the handling of the volume of business and the clerical detail in making the entries and issuing the votes.

AMONG THE SICK.

Some New Patients at the Hospitals and Their Ailments.

An employee of the factory of C. D. Lucas and Company, William Pryor, who accidentally broke his leg about 11 A. M. yesterday, was taken to the Virginia Hospital and is now convalescent.

Dr. Stuart McGuire has engaged as his private rooms at the Virginia Hospital, a line of patients, who are being removed from St. Luke's Hospital.

Mr. Baldwin, a line of patients, who are being removed from St. Luke's Hospital, continues to suffer from the effects of a fall, but has no unfavorable prognosis.

Mr. W. E. Andrews, of No. 9 Third Street, Manchester, was yesterday operated on for appendicitis by Dr. Hugh Harrison, and is now convalescent.

Miss Henrietta Booth, of Warrenton, N. C., is undergoing treatment at the Virginia Hospital, under the care of Dr. S. Booth, in Richmond also.

Mr. John Broadbent is improving. Mrs. R. A. Gay, of 202 Park Avenue, is now being treated at the Memorial Hospital, preparatory to undergoing an operation there.

SPECIAL WHEEL UNIFORM

Bicycle Patrolmen Will Wear Knickerbockers and Blouses.

Bicycle uniforms will arrive to-day for the four officers in the city who patrol the streets on wheels. The uniform will consist of knee-pants, made of blue material, black stockings, and a light blue shirt. Ample pockets will be in the uniform for the officers to carry their clubs and revolvers.

Dr. Engel, of the Second District, struck a snag yesterday, and his front wheel received a puncture that necessitated his going to the shops for repairs. This is the first puncture that has been recorded.

The men are rapidly becoming accustomed to the wheels and are covering a great deal of ground. With more experience they will give even better emergency service, aided by the patrol boxes.

Cool at Casino.

The Japanese soldiers at the Casino are the admiration of the small boys and the lovers of precision in military manoeuvres. The men are compact, solid, and give with a precision that is little short of wonderful.

Lorraine, the water queen, is an illusion which can but please, and she is twins at each performance. Steele, Doty and Coe are veteran entertainers and good ones. Clifford is another great feature, a good dancer and contortionist. The bill is to be seen to-night and to-morrow afternoon and night.

New Officers Installed.

At a convention of the officers of Richmond County No. 10, Order of Ben Hur, last night at 8 o'clock, forty candidates were initiated. The men made officers last night are: First chief, Charles H. Phillips; chief, James J. Henders; Judge, Thomas J. Dance; teacher, Richard L. Mays; scribe, F. W. Milne; treasurer, J. H. Henders; and secretary, Thomas C. Vaiden; guide, Nicholas Somma; keeper of inner door, Harry H. Hundley; keeper of outer door, Edward N. Holt.

Failed of Quorum.

The Committee on Grounds and Buildings failed of a quorum last night. A sub-committee from the Committee on Streets met yesterday afternoon, and made the application of the Seaboard Air Line to continue a spur track along its line on the north side of the city.

The matter was referred to the City Attorney and City Engineer for report.

At Shakespeare's Home.

Mr. William B. Smith, business manager of the Shakespeare Theatre, a few days ago received a small sprig of Scotch heather from Rev. Plummer F. Jones, formerly with the Times-Dispatch, who is now traveling in England.

In his letter Mr. Jones stated that he was visiting Stratford-on-Avon, and was bringing material for a description of his travels.

New Engine Company Installed.

HE DECLINED TO DELIVER BOYS

Justice Crutchfield Asserts His Jurisdiction Over Henrico Suburbs.

A HIT AT HENRICO JUSTICE

Dull Docket in the Police Court Yesterday, But With the Usual Charges.

It was a dry docket with Justice Crutchfield yesterday morning. Those who appeared before him had the same old stories to tell and the same old penalties were imposed. Humor made its exit before the hands of the clock reached half past nine o'clock, and wit remained in the sanctum of the justice, so there was nothing doing for the hungry newspaper men in the two-seated box that has to accommodate three persons.

Philip Morton, an African, said that he had spoken to his better half about the attentions she was bestowing upon a boarder. His spouse "sassed" him and he handed her a ten dollar package.

The "other half" of Bill Fry didn't appear to press the charge of chastisement, and Bill was allowed to go out in the sun and fry.

Charles Morton got caught shooting craps. He paid $2.00 for not being wise as to the movements of the police.

Jeff Davis came to the police station and positively identified William Kain as the man who had stolen his $36 watch. Kain slew Jeff with a kindly look, and Jeff told the court that the watch hadn't been stolen. Jeff paid the costs.

Melville Oriffin was separated from the half of a five dollar bill for being drunk.

A Blackburn, released from jail several days ago, was found drunk on the street and he will spend thirty days in the villa.

Willie Krauske, a small boy, was charged with interfering with 336worth Toomes. The father of Toomes appeared in court, but could make out no charge against Krauske.

Sam Jones will tell the court on Saturday why he chastised his wife.

Two small white boys who were charged with stealing merchandise from a store at No. 176 West Cary Street, were before Justice Crutchfield yesterday morning, and their cases were continued. The father of one of the boys will send him out of the city at once. The other boy has neither father nor mother, but has a home to which he can go in the city.

A Henrico officer was present and asked the court to turn the boys over to him. "Why should I do any such thing? This court has jurisdiction over this case. You want to give them Henrico justice do you? Well you can't get them now," said the court, and there was a lot of sarcasm in his voice when he spoke to the officer who desired to hold the two youths in the Henrico county jail.

Musical Burlesque.

The Casino may to-morrow night see the last of vaudeville for a spell, the management determining to put on a nonsensical musical farce next week, which has served the patrons of Weber and Field's New York house last season, drawing large houses to the famous resort. "Pousse Cafe" is said to be an extraordinary burlesque, with all sorts of brightly muscled, pretty girls and stunning gowns. The company embraces a total of forty-five people, among them Louise DeLange, who has appeared in the Weber and Field shows for a long time. The management has not decided positively, but the second half of the week may see a change of the bill.

Personal Encounter at the Rink.

Dr. Henry C. Kellam and George W. Hannis were each fined $20 and costs by Judge J. T. Lewis, of Henrico county, yesterday morning, for causing an altercation at the skating rink at Reservoir Park Wednesday night. Mr. McMillan, a bystander, who interfered, was fined $10, and Mr. E. D. Hotchkiss, Jr., was fined $5 for participating in the quarrel. Mr. Hotchkiss, from the evidence adduced, was laboring under great provocation at the time. Messrs. Kellam and Hannis, it was claimed, had accosted a young lady with Mr. Hotchkiss and with whom they were unacquainted.
